

Top 100 round two

The TOP 100 is an open submission art show inviting artists to submit 2D artworks inspired by a piece of music, lyric or a recording artist. This could be an alternative album cover for a favourite artist or an interpretation of a song or lyric. Artists can interpret with photography, painting, print, drawing, graphics, comic strip, collage or whatever medium you choose as long as it is 12 inches square (305mm x 305mm) and must be 2D. Check the submission rules for full details.

The Exhibition

100 artworks will be selected from the entries over two rounds and will hung at three shows: a central London venue, a high-profile music business event in Brighton in May 2009, and a final show and the announcement of the selected Number 1. Two of the venues are music-related with musicians and music industry representatives working and visiting – there is a guaranteed large audience for these venues.

The work will be judged by a selection of professionals from art galleries, the music business, photography and design. The judges will select a Top 20 for each round that will be given additional promotion both on our website and at the shows themselves.

The promotion of the shows is accompanied by a free compilation CD of unsigned bands, selected by Kelly Wheeler.
